COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD AND SPORTSPERSON OF THE YEAR 2020 NOMINATIONS NOW OPEN!

Every year the Shire celebrates its inspiring community members with the Community Service and Sports person of the Year Awards.

To recap, Eileen McCahon received the Sports person of the Year Award in 2019 for her on-field and off-field performance, which contributed to the success of the Pingelly Bowling Club.

The community service Award in 2019 was awarded to Bruce Sewell following six years of voluntary commitment culminating with the opening of the Pingelly Recreation and Cultural Centre. In his capacity as the inaugural Chairperson, Bruce's tireless efforts ensured the facility's ongoing operations were designed to meet the needs of community and sporting organisations into the future.

Nominations for the 2020 awards are now open and close on Friday, 27 November 2020. The two recipients will receive their award at the Shire's Australia Day event to be held on Australia Day, 26 January 2021.

Nomination Forms and Guidelines are available to download from the Shire of Pingelly's website. A copy has also been attached to this week's Shire News.

PINGELLY MEN'S SHED DRUM MUSTER

Due to popular demand, the Pingelly Men's Shed will be facilitating a second Drum Muster on Thursday, 5 November at the Shire of Pingelly Depot.

Drum Musters enable farmers to recycle their empty chemical containers and enable the men's shed to raise funds to support the important work they do for our community

Bookings are limited and essential. Contact the Shire Office on 9887 1066 or admin@pingelly.wa.gov.au to reserve your spot today!
