

Live and Local Music Project Musician Expression of Interest

If you are a musician or part of a band looking to get involved in a range of live music events and professional development, then we would love to hear from you! We are developing a database of local and regional contacts who are involved in main stage, roving and/or intimate musical performances to perform at Live and Local activations throughout 2020-21. The performance program will align with a dedicated professional development program presented by music industry professionals. Topics will include DIY music business basics, marketing, copyright and royalties, streaming and digital platforms, as well as tips on how to put on a great gig and develop a resilient music career.

We value your opinion and would like to hear your ideas to shape this project and how live music can be best applied to support Pingelly's social and economic recovery from COVID-19.
