

NAIDOC WEEK CELEBRATIONS

NAIDOC Week was celebrated here this last week in Pingelly. NAIDOC Week started with dedications to some of our amazing Aboriginal community members with a story of their involvement and contribution to Pingelly. On Friday the Shire of Pingelly together with MYFAC– Moorditj Youth Foundation held a BBQ in Memorial Park. The BBQ was well received, with the kids being entertained with a kids table and colouring in competition. The Pingelly Police joined us for the afternoon with their Police Vehicle, allowing the children to sound the sirens and flash the lights.

Thank you to Malcolm & Tricia for holding a fabulous work station for the kids and to the Pingelly Police (Cheryl, Marty and KB) for attending the evening and interacting with the children.

The Shire of Pingelly with Malcolm Jetta will be holding a NAIDOC Week celebration when school returns on July 28 2022. This event will showcase the URL that was produced at the youth camps out at Pumphreys Bridge as well as interactive stalls and workshops for the community.
